1—In Memoriam

In loving memory of our son and brother, Sgt. Eugene W. Smith, who passed away in the service of his country one year ago today, June 12th, 1944.

What would I give to clasp his hand,
His happy face to see,
To hear his voice and see his smile,
That meant so much to me.

Sadly missed by his parents and brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Smith and sons.

2—Card of Thanks

May we take this opportunity to thank our friends and relatives for the kindness and sympathy they extended to us in our recent bereavement, the sad loss of our beloved son and brother, Sgt. Earl Breese.

We are especially grateful to the Rev. Kuechle for his comforting words. The American Legion for their efficient services, the donors of flowers, Mr. Mader and singers and all others who helped in any way to lighten our burden.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Breese and sons Jerome and Russell.

Market Report

Mixed Stocks Transfer to Recovery Side

New York—(AP)—Assorted aircrafts, rails, industrials and utilities switched to the recovery side of today's stock market although many leaders continued to operate in the losing bracket.

Belief the list may have concluded its technical correction inspired a little bidding. Individual circumstances, earnings, dividends and a mild revival of peace-time optimism provided bolstering factors.

Prices stiffened after the opening. Gains of fractions to a point or more were reduced in most cases near the close. Dealings were relatively slack throughout. Transfers ran to around 1,800,000 shares.

Futures Firm To Steady in Today's Trade

Chicago — (AP) — Grain futures with the exception of oats were steady to firm in today's trading.

Steady commission house buying of wheat after an initial dip gave all deliveries a firm tone. Shortly after the opening July wheat was off as much as ¾ cent, but support developed under buying by a commission house with eastern connections, and local traders switched to the buying side.

Action in corn was limited and all deliveries held to minor fractions on either side of last night's close. There was demand for July corn at ceiling prices, but none was offered. There was some sale of September corn.

Receipts were: Wheat 95 cars, corn 127, oats 1, soybeans 10.

At the close wheat was ⅛ higher to ⅛ lower than yesterday's close, July $1.67½-⅝. Corn was ⅛ lower to ¼ higher, July $1.18½. Oats were ¼ to ¾ lower, July 67½-⅝. Rye was ⅛ to 1⅛ higher, July $1.43⅜-½. Barley was unchanged to ⅛ lower, July $1.12½.
