

ried with Masonic honors, members from the Lodges at Wausau, Stevens Point, Stanton, and this place, being in attendance.

And so terminates the earthly career of one of the greatest, best and noblest of the citizens of the Wisconsin Pinery!

In the Madison Journal of the 29th, we find a full memoranda, taken by Gov. Harvey, of the condition of each Company of the 18th Regiment. The following relates to the "Alban Pinery Rangers:"

COMPANY G.—Capt. Compton, killed, shot through the head, fought bravely, died instantly.

1st Lieut. F. P. Case, through battle, came out alive and well.

2d Lieut. Jas. R. Scott, through battle, came out alive and well.

Orderly—Chas. Rider, Milton, in battle to noon Sunday; took off Coleman.

Simeon D. Fay, Oxford—after the regiment got broken got out of cartridges, went and got more, entered a squad and fought by Lieut. till night; Monday with the 57th Illinois.

2d Sergeant O. W. Pitts, sick, ague; 3d, J. Snyder, color bearer, slightly wounded, present; A. G. Loomis, severely wounded, Savannah; C. O. Pease, present, sick, rheumatism.

6 corporals present, 4 fit for duty, 2 not bad and 2 missing.

60 officers and men; one half-report for duty.

REBEL PRISONERS.—On Thursday 200 or 300 more rebel prisoners arrived at Madison, and the Journal says they looked wretchedly, and adds:

One of the prisoners died in the cars just this side of Mazomanie.—Eleven died in the boat coming up the river. It was in anything but a healthy state when it reached Prairie du Chien.

One of their surgeons accompanied the prisoners, and seemed ready to do all he could for them.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—The Syracuse Journal says a young German named Schett, residing in that city,

—The City Council of Baltimore has passed a resolution inviting Parson Brownlow to visit that city.

—The New York Custom House is now receiving about $200,000 per day. This looks like a revival of business.

—The Richmond Examiner says there are 250 whiskey distilleries in two districts alone of South Carolina.

—John Brown, Jr., has been confined to his quarters, in Kansas, by rheumatism, for two months and a half.

—We have in the army of the Tennessee 166,000 efficient men. This was the consolidated morning report of Saturday.

—The wife of Singer, the Sewing Machine man, has secured a divorce, and alimony to the amount of $8,000 per annum.

—General Curtis has formally emancipated three slaves, they having been employed by their masters on rebel fortifications.

—The rebel papers used to boast that Jeff. Davis & Co. would have plenty of followers from the North.—They have got them now.

—The agent sent south by the Agricultural Bureau, has obtained fourteen hundred bushels of cotton seed for distribution in the West.

—Major General John E. Wool entered upon his fifty-first year of active service in the army of the United States, on Sunday last.

—Fifteen Major-Generals of Volunteers and one hundred and thirty-four Brigadier-Generals have already been confirmed by the Senate.

—The Czar Alexander, it is rumored, will visit Berlin in May, and hold an interview there with the King of Prussia and the Emperor Napoleon.

—E. H. Brodhead, Esq., offered $1,000 reward for the recovery of the body of Gov. Harvey, which offer has been ratified by the State authorities.

3 MAY 1862