Near Closing Trends Are Well Mixed

New York - (AP) - Offerings dried up in today's stock market oils, aircrafts, soft drinks, rails and quickly and prices continued to work final hour.

Near closing trends were well mixed. Turnover, just above 1,000,-000 shares, was one of the smallest for a full session of the past month.

Some customers continued to hold aloof to await more of a technical correction of the long forward drive which put the Associated Press averages at a peak since 1937. Individual situations aided a number of stocks while generally good war news kept liquidation at a minimum. The usual week-end adjustment of accounts was a handi-

Longs Take Their Profit In Wheat Pit

Chicago-(AP)Longs took their profit in the wheat pit today but all when selective demand appeared for futures offerings were absorbed specialties. Steels stiffened in the upward in one of the most bullish grain trade sessions in recent months. The strength of wheat extended to other grains.

News from Washington caused the price advances and the trade showed an inclination to ignore increasingly bearish crop and harvest reports.

Short covering, commission house and mill buying resulted from the announcement commodity credit corporation would buy wheat here at six cents over the loan, indications the purchases may be part of a price supporting program as well as an ffort to replenish feed stocks, and reports the wheat loan rate may be increased about seven cents a bushel.
