

MAR 12 1945

fiction
: 8
th

CHARLES LABROT DIES OF WOUND

he of-
today
rs asn and
ary C.
lpwood
li meet
ers of rch 19

Pfc. Charles K. LaBrot, 25, whose wife, Leda, resides at 411 Ninth street south, died March 2 in Luxembourg as the result of wounds received in action. Mrs. LaBrot received word of her husband's death from the war department this morning.

at the rill in-ck log
er mill
states,
Minne-
effect
these

Private LaBrot was serving with the 345th infantry division in Luxembourg.

imates
le pro-
cent
period

He was born at Colburn, Wis., May 13, 1919, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaBrot. The family later moved to Marquand, Mo. Private LaBrot came to Wisconsin Rapids eight years ago and was employed by Prentiss-Wabers Products company prior to his entrance into the army July 20, 1944.

19
rt

The Wisconsin Rapids soldier was trained at Fort Sheridan, Ill., Camp Wolters, Tex., and Fort Meade, Md., before going overseas last December.

In addition to his wife and parents, he is survived by three small children, Keith 4, Donna 3, and Barbara 17 months old, and three brothers and three sisters, all living in Missouri.

LABrot