teacher in the classroom who will help to form the child's future thinking.

The speaker prophesied that the roal of teachers must be world peace, and in the post-war era it will be their job to teach children the meaning of liberty and peace. Referring to the fighting in Europe, See—GRADUATION—Page 8

Wood County 4-H Group at Wausau Camp June 10-13

Thirty-find Wood county 4-H club representatives will attend the annual 4-H Leadership Training camp at Wausau, June 10 to 13. The program is planned to help leaders in 4-H work, whether their responsibility is project instruction, demonstration, judging or any other activity that helps to carry on this youth work.

The main theme this year is, "How can club work fit its membership for the post-war period." Adult and junior leaders, older club members and officers from thirteen counties are invited to attend.

Those from Wood county who are planning to attend are, Arpin club, Arlene Hause; Cheerful Chuggers of Veedum, Frances Turner, Verla Belle Hayes; Clovernook club, Donald Stoflet, Margaret Schill; Ebbe club, Mrs. Loy Rayhorn, Ronald Breheim, Russell Meyer; Hillview club, Gilbert Getlinger; Mara-Wood club, Glen Bubolz; Lynn Creek club, Mrs. Richard McLean; Nasonville club, Norbert Hanson, Gladys Kiddoo; Righfeld, Neil Blanchard, Jerry Boehring; Pittsville-Pleasant Corners, Bennie-Dibble, Carol By mers; Sherry, Phyllis Pierce, Robert Weber; Wallace, Ellen Urban; Wazeecha, Betty Rae Warner, Eleanor Braun; Wittenberg, Mrs. Jasper Egland, Babcock; Barbara Scott, Jane! Kuhlka; MacArthur, Jean Kiesling, Inez Debevec; Pearl, Donald Maher, Jerry Alft; Riverview, Lorraine Dieringer, Betty Dieringer.

Leaders and members from Pearl, Lynn Creek and Marshfield Central clubs are also planning to spend a day at the camp. The group will be accompanied by Miss Cecelia Shestock and H. / R. Lathrope, county extension agents.

Large Attendance At Safety Conference

Marshfield, Wis .-- About 275 key Industrial and tradesmen from a here this afternoon for the opening will meet in the court house annex. The body will

Gen Douglas MacArulur owner an automore bomber range of the Philippines—the allies' first since J steamfoller crushed them back against Australia early in the Outsmart Jan Defenders war.

FOR CARL LEDER

Funeral services will be held on Saturday at 1:30 p. m. from the-Krohn and Berard funeral chapel to the St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church for Carl F. Leder, 23, aviation metalsmith third class, who died at 6:04 a. m. Sunday, June 4, of injuries received when he was struck down by a hit and run driver at Miami, Fla., on Thursday, June 1.

Full Military Rites

The Rev. E. H. Walther is to of-ficiate and full military rites will be accorded the victim by Charles Hagerstrom Post No. 9 of the American Legion, with burial to take place in Forest Hill cemetery.

Born in Wisconsin Rapids on April 11, 1921, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Leder, Carl attended St. Paul's Lutheran school and graduated from Lincoln high school with the class of 1939. About a year later he enrolled in the Racine school of aviation, and from there was sent to a government airport at Albany, Ga.

Enlisting in the navy at Norfolk, Va., in April 1942, Carl took his basic training there, then was transferred to Miami, Fla. Sent to Puerto Rico, he was stationed there for eight months, returning last December to Mimai, where he was with the naval air transport squadron V. R. 7.

Surviving Relatives

Surviving relatives are his mether, Mrs. Otto Leder of this city; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles Peters, also of this city; one brother, Pfo. William Leder with the U. S. armed forces overseas; one sister. Mrs. Theo Walrath and one nephew, Richard Walrath of this city. His father preceded him in death on April 23, 1943.

The American Legion color guard will meet the body when it arrives at the depot Friday morning and accompany it to the funeral home, where friends may call until time for services. Legionnaires will stand guard on Friday evening.

Weed Commissioners Meet Here June 14

towns and villages of Wood county and Juliana, all at hom Weed commissioners from all Toughened American inv Biak, largest island of the ! group off Dutch New Guir smarted the Japanese defer grab Mokmer airdrome adays of savage fighting. M only 880 miles southeast of ippines.

Announcement of the Yar mer triumph highlighted setbacks in every Pacific th cept central China where fi nese resistance was being around Changsha.

This key Hankow-Canto: center in Hunan province strangled slowly by six spearheads in a drive to sp from north to south.

Chinese Press Ahead

But the Chinese pressed the Salween river front thrust through Yunan pro ward Burma where other . ces are fighting to link t! and Ledo roads. In Inc troops pursued Japanese 1 Kohima area.

Bangkok, capital of Jap Thailand, was rocked in th attack of the war by stri See-WAR IN PACIFIC

Mrs. G. Marc Succumbs; Fu Will Be Mon

Mrs. George Marcoux, Apricot street, died at he 11:30 a. m. today follow: ering illness. Funeral se be Monday, June 12, at the SS. Peter and Par church with the Rt. Rev. liam Reding officiating, lows in Calvary cemetery

Mrs. Marcoux, nee Mawas born at Cripple Cree Sept. 2, 1899, the daugh and Mrs. William J. M was married to George Denver, Col., on Januar coming to this community year. Thère wers nin three preceding the moth

Surviving relatives r father, William Murphy . ridge. Col., her husbanc dren, Mrs. G'en Hueble c Lorene, Ruth, Geraldine The body will rema