Clt
Op

Staff Sgt. Charles L. Neinfeldt of Route 5, city, was one of 13 men aboard an army plane which the Morrison field airbase, West Palm Beach, Fla., Friday night announced as missing on an overwater flight, according to three telegrams received by his parents and sister here. Sgt. Neinfeldt, who was inducted in January of this year, and had received training at Gowen Field, Idaho; Sioux City, Ia., and Lincoln, Neb., was a tail gunner aboard the missing bomber.

The flier has two brothers in the service, Pfc. Ernest Neinfeldt jr., stationed somewhere in England with the glider infantry, and Sgt. Clarence Neinfeldt, with a tank destroyer battalion at Nashville, Tenn.
