

Aug 15 1945

er that minding
enough ring the
and dea-
ver-cele-
nt only
continue
t county
similar ing, the
up for
chair-
nmitten-
should placed
the day
a noon
d after-
If the e stores
y. also
by offi-
Nekonsa
in Wis-
ured in
Power
Abba-
company
would ied and a full
reducts
lose on
member,
lustries
Paper
is vica-
son,
an field
vice at church.

Wounds Fatal To Rapids Man On U.S. Ship

Pfc. Dennis H. Plowman, 23, son of Mrs. Mary Plowman, 831 Seventh avenue south, died as the result of wounds received in action on Leyte island in the Philippines on December 6, 1944, according to a war department message received by the soldier's mother.

The Wisconsin Rapids soldier died aboard a United States ship in the Pacific area, date unreported, the war department stated.

Plowman was born October 18, 1921 in Wisconsin Rapids. He attended the West Side Lutheran grade school and was graduated from Lincoln high school in 1940.

Prior to his entry into military service, August 31, 1942, he was employed by the Hiron division of Consolidated Water Power and Paper company.

After receiving training at Fort Sheridan, Ill., Camp Wheeler, Ga., Fort George G. Meade, Md., Camp Carrollville, Pa., and Camp Livingston, La., he went overseas in December, 1943.

Plowman served in the Hawaiian Islands, New Guinea and in the Philippines. He won the Expert Infantry badge, Good Conduct medal and the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon.

Plowman