Wounds Fatal To Rapids Man On U.S. Ship

Pfc. Dennis H. Plowman, 23, son of Mrs. Mary Plowman, 331 Seventh avenue south, died as the result of wounds received in action on Leyte island in the Philippines on December 5, 1944, according to a war department message received by the soldier's mother.
The Wisconsin Rapids soldier died aboard a United States ship in the Pacific area, date unreported, the war department stated.
Plowman was born October 18, 1921 in Wisconsin Rapids. He attended the West Side Lutheran grade school and was graduated from Lincoln High school in 1940.
Prior to his entry into military service, August 31, 1942, he was employed by the Iron division of Consolidated Water Power and Paper company.
After receiving training at Fort Sheridan, Ill., Camp Wheeler, Ga., Fort George G. Mead, Md., Camp Carrabelle, Fla., and Camp Livingston, La., he went overseas in December, 1943.
Plowman served in the Hawaiian islands, New Guinea and in the Philippines. He won the Expert Infantry badge, Good Conduct medal and the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon.
In addition to his mother, Plow-man is survived by one brother, Donald, and one sister, Mrs. Donald Diver of this city.
