use of "every available means" to combat Russian aggression.

Bridges, top Republican on the senate armed services and appropriations committee, said there must be round-the-clock production and universal military service to build the fighting machine to win "a war far more deadly than any in the recorded history of mankind."

The New Hampshire senator sided with Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) in a demand for military aid to the Chinese Nationalists through the blockade of Red China and encouragement of guerilla activities there.

The two lawmakers spoke out in speeches prepared for the resumption today of a bitter senate debate over foreign policy.

McCarran said that unless a second front is opened in China American troops will go on "taking one kicking after another" in Korea.

He said making it possible for Chinese Nationalists on Formosa to invade the mainland "offers the best chance of retrieving victory in Asia." McCarran already has offered a bill to provide $1,000,000,000 in military aid to the Nationalists.

Bridges and McCarran were only two of several senators who planned to continue the senate debate over international policies, centering primarily around the issue of sending additional American troops to help bolster Western Europe's defenses against communism.

That issue took a new turn over the weekend when Senator George oldest member of the senate foreign relations committee in point of service, said in a statement that President Truman must get congress approval for such a move if he expects to attain national unity.

The two Illinois senators, Dirksen and Douglas, members of different parties, agreed that Truman has the authority to send troops but that he should not use it without congress approval.

Three vehicles were involved in an accident near the intersection of Baker and Fourteenth street Saturday causing total damage estimated at $100.

Volunteers Need Permit To Enlist

Washington — (AP) — President Truman today directed that all youths volunteering for the armed services must do so through their local draft boards.

Under his order, the volunteer must file an application with his board for voluntary induction. This is required whether or not the volunteer has been registered.

If a registrant is unable to return to his local board to volunteer, he may file application with the local board in the area where he may be residing at the time of his decision.

Under the regulations, a man filing for voluntary induction will be classified as soon as possible and placed in the class available for military service if he qualifies.

A man not required to be registered for induction who volunteers will be registered and given a selective service number in the same manner as those required to register.

The White House made public Truman's order without any immediate explanatory statement. It was not clear whether it would leave the volunteer free to enter the service of his choice.

At present, the navy and the air force have been receiving all the volunteers they can handle.

The draft has been used only to get manpower for the army.

The 1951 March of Dimes polio campaign was launched today with an official proclamation by Mayor C. C. Knudsen urging everyone to give a "generous contribution" to the drive for funds needed to combat poliomyelitis.

In his proclamation the mayor states that this campaign "is one of the most worthy causes to which we can be called upon to contribute."

Knudsen says there were 22 new cases of polio in Wood county during 1950 and that we have no guarantee that this disease will not reoccur in epidemic proportions in Wood county again this year.

Nels M. Justeson, Wood county chairman of the 1951 campaign, will give a 10 minute speech over radio station WPHR at 7:45 tonight in a special appeal for contributions to the drive.

Following is the full text of the mayor's proclamation:

ROLAND ZURFLUH

R. H. Zurfluh Is Missing; List Injured

Roland H. Zurfluh, 20, Nekeos, has been missing in action in Korea since July 16 according to a telegram from the defense department received by his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Zurfluh, Jr., late Friday night.

The telegram follows two previous communications received from the defense department about six weeks ago which assured the Zurfluhs that their son "was in good hands and in good health." These earlier assurances were in reply to an inquiry the Zurfluhs made after they had received no word from Roland since July 10, six days after his arrival in Korea.

In the telegram received Friday there was no explanation of the delay in reporting Roland missing nor any reference to the previous communications.

Roland joined the army a year ago September and was assigned to the 19th regiment of the 24th division for duty in Korea. Roland attended SS. Peter and Paul Catholic grade school in Wisconsin Rapids.

Another Tri-Cities serviceman, Corp. Clarence J. Ashberg, 24, was reported by the defense department to have been wounded in action on November 2. Corporal Ashberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Marcel Ashberg, 651 Tenth avenue north, Wisconsin Rapids, have received a letter from their son declaring that he returned to duty after a brief stay in an army hospital in Korea.

Corporal Ashberg is a navy veteran of World war II who was discharged and then enlisted in the army two and one-half years ago.

Listed as missing in action in the latest defense department casualty report are Pfc. Arthur A. York, son of Guy B. York, Route 1, Wild Rose, and Sgt. Edward H. Collins, son of Mrs. Dora A. Collins, Route 2, Grand Marsh.
