Our sorrow is hard to bear, but we know that without the comfort and consolation of our relatives and friends, the sad loss of our son and brother, Private Harland Spry would have been a heavier burden To each and every person whose thoughtfulness helped us at this time, our grateful acknowledgment. Our special thanks to all our neighbors, friends, relatives, the Rev. and Mrs. C. A. O'Neil, for their comforting words, Mrs. James Harlow and Miss Foyce Long, Soldiers of Camp. McCoy, American Legion of Archie Hamel Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Marshfield and Wisconsin Rapids, Port Edwards Finishing room employees, Voss very grateful to the Rev. C. A. O'-Neill and the Rev. D. R. Smith for their comforting words and to the flower donors and those who donated their help in any way. We wish to thank the Nekoosa help, and all others who helped to lighten our burden in any way. We can not find words enough to thank all of you for the kindness
